

2025 MINI PRESENTATION PROPOSALS

For

Sixth Annual Clay Con West

Saint George, Utah January 17-19, 2025

Clay Con West is a growing organization dedicated to the advancement of the ceramic arts both educationally and professionally. As a growing organization, our goal is to build every year and develop connections in the ceramics world that can benefit all who love this art.

Submissions begin:

March 17, 2024

Deadline:

June 30, 2024

Clay Con West is seeking proposals for artists to present a mini presentation/workshop (90 minutes) at our conference in Saint George, Utah, during January 17-19, 2025.

Eligibility:

Any artist who has a desire to share an exciting or unique skill or technique with other potter's and does not have any issue with their ideas being integrated into other's work.

Format:

There will be 10-14 total mini presentations during the 3 day conference. As a conference presenter, you will commit to the following:

- One (1) - 75 to 90 minute presentation, with the option to allow the attendees to try out the techniques taught, if you desire.
- Arrive at least one day prior to your presentation to confirm materials have arrived and are available.

Application Process:

All proposals must be submitted by email to clayconwest@gmail.com. Please read the following information on what needs to be submitted. If any of the following is left out, the proposal will automatically be rejected.

- Biography
- Headshot
- Social media tags
- Artist statement
- Brief presentation description
- A list of any equipment desired, with understanding that any specialized tools must be provided by the artist.
 - The Dixie Center does not allow for open flame, paints and solvents, or other hazardous materials.
- 2-4 images which directly reflect the concepts being taught - .jpg files
 - Image Title, Image description - 50 word max
 - Description of Piece in Image - Clay, Firings, Date, Dimensions, etc

Adjudication:

All proposals and images will be shared with the Clay Con West Board for consideration. Clay Con West will notify artists of acceptance or denial by email as soon as the Board has made their decision. Decisions will be made within 1 week of the proposal deadline. If you have any questions, please contact Clay Con West by email at clayconwest@gmail.com.

Benefits to Artists

Mini Presentation artists will receive:

- Registration to Clay Con West 2025 ($200 value)
- $400 Honorarium

If you have any further questions, please contact us at clayconwest@gmail.com

ARTIST SALES: Artist will be provided with one (1) 6' table with covering to display work. Decor (table top decorations, cards, etc) and pricing will be provided by the artist. Artist will need an inventory list and to number each piece along with price so that cashiers at CCW will have a reference for when the piece is sold. Artist will pay for shipping and transport of all artwork to be shown and sold at the conference. CCW will handle all sales and taxes and will receive 25% of sales.